FATHER RILEY IN FRONT

TAKES LATONIA'S LONGEST RACE OF THE DAY OVER A HOLDING TRACK.

Favorites Delude Their Backers-George J. Long Captures Two Races-Brown Case Undecided -Beach Comber Ailing.

Cincinnati, O., June 15.—Today's card was in keeping with the track conditions and brought out the poorer grade of racers at the course. All the races were framed with selling conditions and six of the seven events were at sprinting distances. Despite threatening and cool weather, another big crowd was in attendance and considering the poor betting mediums that the different races presented, the play was surprisingly large. As a result of the bard rains last night, the track was in the worst condition that it has been in since the opening. The only long race carded was taken by Father Riley in commanding fashion, but his victory was a fluky one, for, with a clear course, Mallard probably would have reversed the outcome. She was an extensive sufferer from interference most of the way and came fast when clear.

Favorites fared poorly during the afternoon, the purses going to outsiders in most of the races. After the victory of Freeman in the third race he was bid up from an entered price of $400 to $1,000, but was bought in with the customary advance of $5.

After the victory of Freeman in the third race he was bid up from an entered price of $400 to $1,000, but was bought in with the customary advance of $5.

Grecian, Asparagus Sam, Kate K. and Reno were among the afternoon's disappointments. Their failure to run to places cost those who make a practice of accepting short odds to show a heavy loss.

The stewards during the afternoon continued their investigation of the Brown case and had several persons before them. The officials, however, had nothing to give out for publication. They will probably conclude the case tomorrow.

E. R. Bradley's Beach Comber is on the ailing list, having picked up a nail, and requires attention to prevent blood poisoning. Beach Comber is without doubt the highest priced maiden in the country. Richard Croker has a standing offer to E. R. Bradley for the celt's transfer for $25,000, conditional that Beach Comber be delivered to Mr. Croker's place in Ireland any time during this year. Mr. Bradley values the colt in excess of the figure offered by Mr. Froker for stud purposes.

George J. Long's colors were successful twice during the afternoon. Black Beauty accounting for the purse in the fifth race while Freeman carried them to victory in the third race.

Most of the racers in J. L. Holland's stable are on the ailing list and trainer Dick Williams has decided that he will keep them in Kentucky next summer and rest them until fall racing comes.

General Manager Hachmeister announced today that ladies with escorts will be admitted to the grounds and grandstand free of charge on Wednesday June 23 and Wednesday, June 20.

UNPLEASANT WEATHER AT BLUE BONNETS.

Water Lady Takes the Jacques Cartier Selling Stakes-George Smith Continues to Win.

Stakes—George Smith Centinues to Win.

Montreal, Que., June 15.—Unpleasant weather conditions marked the close of the Elue Bonnets meeting today. Heavy showers fell all morning and made the track muddy. Despite this, a fair-sized crowd turned out and some interesting sport was witnessed. The stable of Mrs. J. Arthur accounted for two of the races, Golden Plume beating a big band in the third and whining in a driving finish from Gordon. The first three in this race were heads apart in passing the judges.

The Arthur stable's second victory came when the consistent filly Water Lady won the Jacques Cartier Selling Stakes, a dash of one mile, with selling allowances. Water Lady was ridden by McAtee, came from behind the leaders while rounding the far turn and, easily passing the leaders in the homestretch, led Squeeler by a couple of lengths at the end. The latter showed much the most speed for five-eighths then began to tire. Brave Cumarder, one of the choices, made a wretched showing in this race. He was never prominent at any stage and was beaten off at the finish. It is just possible that this horse may be on the verge of sickness.

Edward McBride's unbeaten two-year-old, George Smith, added another to his long list of victories when he won the second race. He carried top weight in today's race and after beginning slowly closed a big gap and, finishing fast, drew away into an easy lead in the last sixteenth. This made the sixth straight victory for the colt.

Decathlon, purchased a few days ago by the Mizpah Stable, won at the first time of asking for his new owner when he best Stucco a length in a driving finish in today's steeplechase. Decathlon was much the best, He raced wide for most of the way and finished fast and resolutely.

Several owners who participated in the meeting at Blue Bonnets have elected to rest until the Hamilton tomorrow and H. G. Bedwell will leave with a division of his stable for the same place on Thursday.

R. A. White lost his useful plater Cannock this morning. The colt was stricken with a division of his stable for the same place on Thursday.

R. A. White lost his useful plater Cannock this morning. The colt was stricken with an attack of acute indigestion. White has purchased the gelding Ortyx of J. D. Misick. The latter owned the horse only a few days, having secured him from Edward McBride during the Dorval Park meeting.

The filly Misty Morn died at the Dorval track yesterday. Several horses are on the ailing list at the latter place.

Two big specials left Montreal tonight for Ottawa and several more stables will leave tomorrow.

Frank J. Bryan, who has been acting as one of the associate stewards at Blue Bonnets, left tonight for New York. He will go from there to Brookline for the Country Club meeting. Gwyn Tompkins will probably send a couple of jumpers to Brookline to participate in the racing there.

M. S. R., St. Louis, Mo. Do not know the present location of the persons inquired about.

T. D., Chicago. There was a place price against Waterbass in race 20921, but no show price.

E. H. & G. R., Indianapolis, Ind. A layer's rules govern and his customers are bound by them, after being informed of them.

THE FINN TAKES ANOTHER STAKE RACE.

Defeats Sharpshooter Without Much Trouble-House maid Makes a New Track Record with Ease.

New York, June 15.—The Finn, H. C. Hallenbeck's crack three-year-old, placed another stake to his credit when he won the Southampton Handicap at Jamaica this afternoon. The race, which was for three-year-olds at a mile and a sixteenth, carried a net value of $2.325 and Phosphor was the only withdrawal. It could hardly be called a truerun race, however, without attempting to retract from the victory of the Hallenbeck colt, for as the gate went up, Lady Rotha, which was second form the inside, bumped into Sam McMeekin in the next position and almost unseated Dugan. When the field was straightened away both of these horses were lengths behind and although Sam McMeekin made up much ground in going down the backstretch he was unable to get into a contending position and in the last quartet Dugan did not appear to ride him out. The Finn, after he had indulged Garbage with the lead until on the far turn, moved up swiftly and taking the lead was never afterwards threatened. Sharpshooter took second place from the fast coming Runes, an added starter.

A handicap at five and one-half furlongs brought out some shifty sprinters, with Housemaid, the top weight, proving an easy winner. Housemaid went into the lead shortly after the start and held her opponents safe throughout. Comely made a challenge in the stretch but at the end the Hallenbeck mare was going easily to win by a big margin. The time of the race 1:06, represented a new track record.

The withdrawal of Thornbill, Runes and Lady Teresa from the fifth left Roly a prohibitive favorite and he made good without much difficulty. Cliff Field made a couple of attempts to overhaul the Quinn celt, but had to be content with second place.

J. J. Lillis won the second in slow time. Hedge, the second choice, was practically left at the post and owing to the slow pace in the early running byrne soon had her in a contending position, but she was unable to finish better than third. Lady Teresa was the victim of a poor ride at the hands of McCahey and when he called on her in t of McCabey and when he called on her in the stretch she just failed to get up. The Hallenbeck Stable made it a double with Housemaid and The Finn.

District Attorncy Lewis Smith and Sheriff Pettit of Nassau county were visitors today.

It was announced today that August Belmont had purchased a half interest in the three-year-old Sam McMeekin from S. C. Hildreth, who purchased the colt, from J. E. Madden yesterday. He ran in the Belmont colors in the Southampton Handicap today.

Max Hirsch purchased the colt Murphy for Samuel Lewis, the owner of Al Bloch, instead of F. P. Lemaire, as was originally reported.

James Fitzsimmons has sent Absconder and Sing Song to Brookline, Mass., for the hunt meetings at that place Thursday and Saturday. Hernan Conking will depart for the same place to act as clerk of the scales.

Pommern, winner of the New Derby, is by Polymelus, the leading sire in England, in 1998 Clarance H. Mackay commissioned W. H. Rowe, the Jockey Club expert on registration and pedigrees, to pick bim out a first-class sire of Eoglish breeding and Polymelus was his selection. It is probable that had racing not received the setback it did then that Polymelus would be standing in America today.

WINDSOR POPULAR WITH OWNERS.

Detroit, Mich., Jane 15.—Compared to former years the entries made this year to the various stakes offered by the Windsor Jockey Club are surprising. It was expected that the war and the big revival of racing in and around. New York would interfere materially with the sport on the Canadian tracks, but nothing of the sort has happened. Instead, the list of nominations to the Windsor fixtures is larger than last year and nearly up to the showing of 1913, the banner year on the Canadian turf.

For the two meetings, the one in July and the second in August, seven stakes will be decided and the total nominations received is 313, or an average of 44. For the July Meeting the total is 190, or 47 entries for each fixture. The entries to the Frontier Handicap, run on the opening day, is quite to the mark, while the class of horses has never been better in the history of the event. Forty entries have been received for the Frontier Handicap, while 65 nominations to the Edenwold for two-year-olds, is the largest number ever received for that stake. The D. & C. Stakes has 63 entries, the best showing ever made in that fixture, while 22 youngsters are eligible to the Windsor Double Event. a race for Dominion-bred foals of 1913, and which closed last year.

To enumerate the nominations to the Frontier militon tomorrow and H. G. Bedwell will leave h a division of his stable for the same place thursday.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF.

A colt by Colin—Belgravia has been foaled at Price McKinney's Wickliffe Stud in Kentucky. Jockey Butwell has gone to his some in Jackson ville, Fla., to remain for a week, when he will g to Kentucky to try and adjust the trouble he ha with the officials of the Douglas Park meeting.

Johnny McTaggart had his boot torn when he was forced into close quarters on Razzano in the fifth race at Jamaica Saturday. The colt he was riding was also slightly injured by being scraped against the rail.

Royal 'I. was a star in more ways than one on Latonia Derby day. He made his debut as a moving picture leading man. Camera men of the Highland Film Company took every move the Derby winner made, taking race luck that they were photographing the Derby winner-to-be. They got the track star going from the paddock to the post and many parts of his run, including the fluish. The picture will be used as part of a film production to be called "Kentucky."

Washington R. Norvell, who served as racing secretary for the half-mile track meetings held at Electric Park, Prospect Park and Marthoro, passed through Buffalo Saturday on his way to Toronto and Ottawa. He reports that the minor meetings in Maryland were attended by the same measure of prosperity as the more important meetings. When he left Maryland extensive improvements were in progress on the Bowie track. Mr. Norvell will serve as racing secretary for the Dufferin Park and Hill-crest meetings at Toronto this year, as usual.
